I LIKE...

- Working on my tricks because it comes with treats & “no reason” treats are rationed due to my weight, so it’s my snazzy work around. #smartypants
- Walks!! Exercise is so fun and I love being outdoors.
- To steal food. from you, the table, other dogs. This diet has left me starving so you will need to keep a close eye on me so I don’t eat in secret.
- Barking at the squirrels #pawpatrol
- Snuggles, cuddles and pets oh my! #sweetestboy

I DON'T LIKE...

- My diet but it's necessary since I am chunky monkey.
- Squirrels!

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM ME...

Hi! I'm Aksel, and everyone tells me I'm a sweet boy! I mostly just like to chill out and cuddle. My foster mom says I'm on a "weight-loss journey". I like the walking part of the journey, but I don't like the portion control part. Sometimes I'll just stand in the kitchen and flip my dish over to let everyone know how mad I am about it. I need someone who will support me and ensure that I keep eating a healthy amount. I love training! I know a couple of commands and I'm happy to learn more... especially if I get treats! I like my foster brothers and sisters, but I don't really play with them. Mostly we just like to sit together and enjoy each other's company, or bark in unison at whatever is going on outside. I really like watching the squirrels out the window and telling them exactly what I think about them. The squirrels around here have had it too easy for too long! Do the squirrels in your yard need a dedicated paw patrol? If so, I may be your man!

I AM...

- Sweet
- Cuddly
- Calm
- Smart & trainable
- Laidback
- A barker
- Hungry...Like all of the time #dietsucks
- A hunter

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM MY FOSTER FAMILY...

Aksel is a sweet boy who needs a little love and care. He's extremely overweight and will need to follow a weight-loss plan to lose the extra weight in a healthy way. He loves walking and walks very well on leash. He doesn't like being on a diet and will try to steal food from anywhere he can get it, including other dogs. He also doesn't like being left alone but will settle in his crate after a few minutes. He loves barking out the window at anyone going by, so he wouldn't be suitable for an apartment. He has a strong prey drive and loves to chase squirrels. He gets along well with everyone he meets, and is generally a laid-back, great dog.
