DOB:	Unknown
Size & Weight:	13 lbs
Coat & Colour:	Smooth. Red
Primary Breed:	Dachshund
Secondary Breed:		Mixed Breed: <input type="checkbox"/>
Origin:	Owner Surrender

I LIKE...

- Going for walks and exploring my backyard but only when the weather is nice. #iamadachshundduh
- Chelsea. She's my beloved. #soulmates.
- Playing with my ball. I may be older but I love a good game of fetch. #inmyprime

Chelsea & Kaiser

I LIKE CONT'D...

- Spending time with you doing whatever. #besties

I DON'T LIKE...

- Cats. Well I do actually, but only to hunt them. It's so fun! So a cat free home is probably best.
- New people. I bark at first.

Chelsea & Kaiser

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM ME...

Hi! My name is Kaiser. My foster dad says I'm "stoic" because I had three of my teeth removed and I was neutered on the same day! But I was a brave boy. I'm the first to jump to the door for "walkies" although I'm not a big fan of the cold or rain. Walking in the sunshine is wonderful! Foster mom says I'm a sweet boy. I really just want to be with my humans and my lady Chelsea. Oh, and I really like this Oscar fellow who lives here too. Did I mention that I also love to play with a ball? I'll play all night long if you'll let me. I'm very nimble and love to jump and chase it. I'm told that I'm well behaved and have good leash manners. I'm still learning not to jump on the furniture though! I just can't help myself. Want to meet?

I AM...

- Full of love.
- Timid of new people.
- A charmer.
- Athletic & energetic.
- Quirky
- In my George Clooney years. I am getting more handsome by the day!
- Looking for a place to retire and play ball.

Chelsea & Kaiser

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM MY FOSTER FAMILY...

Kaiser is a sweet boy who will shadow his caretakers. He gets along nicely with our Oscar but loves his lady friend Chelsea. He often checks in with her. They are a loving pair although sometimes they both growl a little bit to set boundaries or over food. Kaiser sleeps in his xpen with Chelsea. He settles down very quickly and goes to sleep for the night. We don't know much about Kaiser's past, but we can tell you about his "now". He will bond quickly with anyone who shows him love and a safe space. His only failing is that he doesn't greet strangers well (he barks), but we are working on that. That being said, whoever adopts Kaiser will hit the jackpot!

Medical Note: Kaiser has vasculitis at the tips of ears which can cause bleeding. He has just started to receive medication that we hope will result in improvement.

- Peeing in the rain.
#itsadachshundthing
- Cats.

MY TRAINING...

Housetrained:	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> In Progress	A work in progress. Chelsea is an older dog and needs a good schedule. If you let her out every 2-3 hours she is good. She does well if she's in her xpen (which she shares with Kaiser) when you are busy.
Crate Trained:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No	I like my x-pen it's a little roomier than a crate.
Leash Trained:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No	Yes, but I am a little slower so be patient with me. I am an old gal after all.
Suitable for an Apartment	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> Maybe	No. I bark. What can I say, it's the kids these days I tell ya!

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM ME...

Hi! My name is Chelsea. I'm an older gal and I love my partner Kaiser. Ours is a love story - we have been together since we were 1 and 3 years old. He checks in on me all the time to make sure that I'm staying out of trouble. I do like to walk. I walk a little gingerly - foster Mom thinks it's probably arthritis - but I'm always game. Did I say I love to eat - anything! The treats here are fabulous - cucumbers, red peppers, carrots - I love them all. I've now learned that I go outside and do my business that I should go to the kitchen counter for my treat. I've also been awarded the role of "most excellent kitchen helper" - I excel at that. Foster mom says that I'm an independent gal but I sure run to greet her if she's been out of the house. We were at the vet and I nuzzled her hand all the way home so she would pet my head.

I AM...

- Independent
- Sweet
- Reserved, but very loving and affectionate when I feel like it.
- An early riser. #7amclub
- Timid of new people at first.
- Gentle #unlessyoureasquirrel
- Gorgeous. Just ask Kaiser.
- Looking for a place to retire with my hubby.

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM MY FOSTER FAMILY...

Chelsea is a sweet gal. She has a lot of energy for her age and is certainly game to bark at a squirrel and go for a walk. Chelsea sleeps in her xpen with her hubby Kaiser. She settles down very quickly and goes to sleep for the night. She does wake up early (7 AM) and is most insistent about "out" and "brekkie". Both dogs came into foster care not really house-trained. Kaiser is getting it a little more quickly than Chelsea but we are getting there on a schedule. Like Kaiser, Chelsea will bark at visitors entering the home. We are working on that. She is the more independent of the two but she will also bond quickly. She doesn't like to be alone and always wants to be nearby. Their ideal home would be a quiet one, with a fenced backyard for frequent bathroom breaks. They are both such sweet senior dogs that still have so much love to give. Chelsea may have a heart murmur which requires no meds at this time but care with anesthesia will be needed.

Adoption Fee:	$550 for the pair
Foster Location:	Bayfield, ON
