And now a few words from me:

Hi! I'm Luther and I'm a very handsome boy who loves to hang out with my foster family. I just love it when people are around! But I'm also fine if I'm left alone for a bit. My favorite thing to do is sit at the front window and watch the world go by! I happily do this for hours. I do bark at people walking by, and I also make little grumbly noises which my foster mom thinks makes me sound like Chewbacca! I also love to sniff around the garden, but I'm not too interested in the squirrels. I get very excited when my foster dad returns home from work, barking loudly, tossing my toys around and doing zoomies, though it's short-lived. Then I want to have a cuddle and rest. I'm a typical Dachshund and can be very stubborn, especially when it's time for a walk. But once I get going, I do great! I don't love meeting new dogs on my walks though. Maybe with some training, that will be more enjoyable for me. I'm proud to say I'm houstrained and go straight to the door when I need to go out. I'm super smart! I'm also great at night and can sleep in my dog bed without issue. I'm looking for a home where I can get lots of attention, cuddles and of course, treats (cheese is my favourite)!

And now a few words from my foster family:

Luther is a sweet, soulful dog with typical Dachshund traits. He is a joy to share the house with and radiates a happy, animated energy. It does not take long for him to flop on his back for a belly rub! He is well trained, smart and likes to be part of the action. On the flipside, he's also happy to chill and relax when it is time to wind down for the day. Luther does growl at new visitors but quickly approves of them and then insists on them giving him lots of attention. Luther will need a window or room with a view so he can be head of neighborhood watch! No letter carrier is safe from his barks! One impressive quality he possesses is his calmness; he handles the vacuum, loud sounds, and sudden movements without reacting negatively. He doesn't easily scare or spook. However, he will growl if he thinks someone is trying to stop him from going where he wants to go, for example up the stairs when they are blocked off. We think he gets nervous and needs a bit of training in that department. More of Luther's favourite things: being brushed, sleeping on piles of blankets and rolling around in the snow. And when you tell him he's a handsome boy, he gives you the cutest look of love and appreciation! Luther is a gem of a dog. 🐶 🐾 ❤️
