And now a few words from me:

Hi, my name is Patrick. When we first meet I will be shy and insecure so I will bark to keep people away, but after five minutes and a treat, I will feel more comfortable. In my foster home I live with four dogs and sometimes it's too much action for me; I would prefer a quiet home. My favorite time of the day is mealtime, and that's when you'll see me do a happy dance. My favorite place to be is beside my foster mom on the couch. I'm not a young man but I like walking and am really good on a leash. My foster mom says that I have good energy for my age. My foster home has a big backyard which I like to explore. I'm houstraining but you need to put me outside frequently otherwise accidents may happen. I'm a sweet old man who has lots of love to give and I would prefer if someone is at home a lot of the time. Could that be with you?

And now a few words from my foster family:

Patrick came from a shelter and unfortunately we have no history or records, so everything has to be learned from him directly. When we met it was love at first sight. He is a very sweet old man who just wants love and companionship. He has good energy for his age. When it is mealtime, he becomes very playful with balls, his blanket and anything else he can find. He is timid with strangers and upon first meeting him he will bark at them. The best strategy is to ignore him and he will calm down. He is also insecure around sudden movements; he does not like to be surprised and this seems to cause him stress. He can manage a couple of stairs but not a flight, so potential adopters should keep this in mind. Patrick is quiet and affectionate and will be a very good companion! Located and fostered in Gatineau QC just across the river from Ottawa.
